On Fascism

BadriRaina

I am not a fascist only when
I pull the trigger and kill;
I am a fascist when first I think
My work is god's own will.

I am not a fascist only when
I break the common law;
I am a fascist when first I think
I make the common law.

I am not a fascist only when
I set up to harangue;
I am a fascist when first I think
What need has the other of tongue.

I am not a fascist only when
I tear up like the vulture;
I am a fascist when first I think
My culture alone is Culture.

I am not a fascist only when
I decimate all other kind;
I am a fascist when first I think
It is purity I have in mind.
